Name: Prem Sharan S

Regno: 19BEE0003

Assignment-1

ROS Basic commands

1)exit - This command closes the terminal window.

2)pwd - Prints the working directory.

3)echo - Prints a string of text to the terminal window.

4)touch - Used to create empty files.c

5)passwd - Used to create or change the password for a user.

6)cat - Used to filter file.

7)chmod - Used to set permission flags in files.

8)sudo - Required when performing actions that require root or supervisor.

9)clear - Used to clear the terminal screen.

10)uname - This can obtain system information regarding the linux computer you are working on .

11)mkdir - is used to create a new directory.

12)ps - Lists the running processes.

13)mv - This allows you to move files and directories from one directory to another.

14)cp - Used to copy a file or directory.

15)curl - Helps in retrieving information and files from URL.

16)cd - used to change the current directory.

17)ls - displays the list of content in the directory.

18)ssh - Used to create a remote connection through the ssh protocol.

19)sort - Used to arrange files in alphabetical order.

20)kill - lets u to terminate a process from the command line.